“ One thing we have in common is that we both like to eat. I miss going out to lunch with you after church and having a little argument about letting me pay for our meals. I also miss bringing you some chicken soup when you were not feeling so well.

Love you,
Marisol

Family is Family, though near or far we are still connected. I loved my Aunt Amy and am saddened by our loss. My prayers are with the Family Stay Strong In The Lord and The Power of HIS Might. Miss you all there in Prairie View, my home town. God Bless and keep all of you.
