

Andrewlene "Sue" Jackson-Jones

February 19, 1956 - February 14, 2021

On February 19, 1956 a beautiful baby girl was born t/o the late Annie Lee Jackson in Hempstead, Texas she named her Andrewlene, better known as "Sue" to all that knew and loved her.

Sue was baptized at an early age at Louisville Baptist Church, Where she was still actively serving on the Usher Board and singing in the Choir.

Andrewlene was a life long resident of Hempstead, she attended school in Hempstead, and later in life worked for the school district for over 10 years, and after leaving there continued to be a Entrepreneur in Produce and Crops were she had a passion since a child.

Sue is proceeded in death by the late Mr. Boston Bailey who raised her as his own, Her loving Mother Annie Lee Jackson, and six siblings Anita Irving, Annie, James, Boston Jr, Leroy Jackson, and Levester Jackson.

Andrewlene Jones leaves to cherish her special life memories three beloved sons, Lenel Jackson Sr. of Houston Texas, Dionell Jackson of Hempstead Texas, and Craig Jackson (Kayla) of Bellville Texas. Five Grandchildren LeNisha, Lenel, Jade, Kason, and Kinley. She will also be missed by four Siblings R.C. Jackson, Morris Jackson (Shirley), Beatrice Jackson and Rena Jackson, all of Hempstead Texas. a very special friend Ms. Betty Jordan, And a host of Nieces, Nephews, Aunts, and Uncles.

At family gatherings everyone looked forward to getting Sue's Berry Dumplings and Chicken Dressing, and you could find her wherever the music was as she enjoyed dancing and having herself a good time. When not having a family gathering Sue enjoyed taking trips to the Casino or Fishing with her Cane Pole. Andrewlene was a stranger to no one and she will be greatly missed.
