“ Wendy, Condolences to you and your family. Remember God's love & compassion sustains you.

Your love for your mother remains forever. It is now your responsibility to continue to carry out God's command which is LOVE. And he commands his children to live in love, grown in love, nature in love, share in love, ad show to the world the difference that love in living can make, that becomes your Mom's legacy to you. Blessings & pryers.

“ PV Grandma, as she was affectionately called, was a great support system for my son Andre, daughter-in-law Najia and grandson AJ. The ENTIRE family embraced my children as their own. I will always be grateful for the unselfish love that was and continues to be demonstrated to the Thomas/Hayes Family. Praying for spiritual comfort , strength and God’s Grace to get you through this period of bereavement.

“ Grandma Williams as she was known to our family as she took in our eldest son Tommy Jr as her own grandson. She taught him many things as a grandma does, she fed him, scolded him and loved him just the same! She accepted our little family as hers, we will forever love her smile, her jokes and Oh her cooking...❤️ We were both excited to sit and visit this past Saturday, instead God needed her more! Fly High Grandma Williams, we'll always love and remember your Giving Heart! Love to Wendy and Jr! The Thompson Family from Cypress, Texas (Tommy Sr., Angelina, Tommy Jr., his wife Kimberlyn and Matthew).

“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to the Williams Family, especially Wendy and JR, on the passing of your mother and grandmother - Ms. Angela Williams. May God provide comfort and understanding to you all during these hours of bereavement. I'll always remember her frank and feisty way of getting people to do the right thing and not taking it personal. Most of all I remember her for her love of family and principles. May her spirit dwell with us all. She will surely be missed as a pillar of the community.
