“ Apostle Barley, I deeply regret the departure of your friend and husband, Bro. Ben. I observed Brother Barley to be a quiet man during my encounters with him. His quiet strength was undeniably felt as he modeled a faithful righteous life. I highly esteemed you both as a power couple. He was a living blueprint of the command to husbands to love their wives as Christ loved the church and gave himself for it. Each time that I saw you both his patience was noticeably present as he chauffeured and supported your call to ministry. You are in my prayers. I understand that separation is painful. The comfort of the Holy Spirit and the love of friends are the healing agents that lift us when we are bowed down. So, today and the days ahead may God's spirit lift you and may you be encouraged by the love of the Body of Christ, family, and friends.
