“ Wow Uncle Sandy I cannot believe that it's been this long since you left us, I take comfort in the last New Year you were here and we sat in the dining room and talk for the entire time. That's when you shared with me your illness but the light in your eyes I knew that you were ready. I hated to see you go, but I know that your time was up, now you the pastor of the family are still watching over us we love you we miss you. Dr Kimberly Jackson Phillips rest on Uncle

“ Uncle Sandy, it's hard to believe I won't hear your voice anymore saying, "Niece, get your uncle....", followed by, "Thank you baby" & my mom saying, "Now Sandy, we are not gone be waiting on you hand & foot! You gone have to get your fat self up!" Fun times like those were the norm at a Spriggs gathering, with you & your siblings! 😂 Laughter & Love overflowing. I loved hearing your testimonies. I'm so grateful for Aunt Mary's sweet spirit & for God bringing her in your life! Rest in Heaven Unc. ❤️

“ Uncle Sandy I remember you saying Niece come talk to uncle and then ask me to get you some water😭. me, Tweety, and Sidney would be so happy to see your 18- Wheeler at Bigmama house but we knew you would put us to work Lol but we didn't mind. We never saw you with a bad attitude you always had a smile and your spirit was amazing Plus your kango hats👨🏾✈️

“ I appreciate the joy and happiness that you gave my grandmother when you entered suddenly into her life. As you both said, God led you to each other. I have watched your bond grow and how you shared your lives together. I remember laughing that one time you two even shared a cane walking through St Luke’s hospital together.

You were always constant and steady. You consistently called me granddaughter after I wouldn’t let them leave you behind while we were running around in DC. We hung back and I walked beside you. Grandmother would tell me how shocked you were that I didn’t leave you behind and I stuck with you. We walked all across the Capital.

I’m comforted in knowing that while I couldn’t be there during your last breath, that your other granddaughter was there with you and ensuring that you obtained the best care.

Rest in peace .

“ There are so many great memories I have with Reverend Spriggs, and I am sharing them just as anyone can choose to share theirs. we’re family and friends and should act accordingly. Recently we were able to celebrate Rev Spriggs birthday. not only did I buy a sheet cake but also made a 5-flavor pound cake per his request since he loved my pound cakes. I’ll miss hearing him say “hey gran...dotter” (phonetically spelled to accentuate his accent lol). He will be greatly missed❤️❤️
