I remembered Mice and I had a class together. I can't remember the class. But anyway we were all chewing gum in her class (mostly all). Well I guess all of that gum chewing got on her nerves. So she asked everyone to spit it out. Everybody did but Mice. She told him again to spit it out. He said that he did not have any gum in his mouth. He opened his mouth wide to show proof that he didn't have any in his mouth. When he opened his mouth wide the gum fell from the top of his mouth. Boy, the whole class hollered. That was the funniest thing. And you can imagine how he was defending him self.
