

Mr. Dale V. Henderson

September 21, 1960 - February 23, 2014

Dale V. Henderson Jr. was born to the late Dale and Jo Ann Henderson on September 21, 1960 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dale's zest and passion for life was evident in every venture that he pursued. He was trustworthy, enthusiastic, and supportive. As a young boy in Indianapolis, Dale became active in the Boy Scouts and learned how to develop his skills in problem-solving, hard work, and dedication. While in high school at Arsenal Tech and College at Indiana State University Dale flourished in athletics. His love for sports led to an undeniable focus and humble power that allowed him to compete with distinction. Dale's remarkable athleticism holds records at Arsenal Tech High School to this day.

Dale graduated from Indiana State University, in 1981 with a B.S. in Graphic Arts Management/Technology. Dale had a creative talent and passion for transforming thoughts, memories and ideas into visual works of art. Dale's tact, intelligence, and his hard work ethic made him an irreplaceable asset to his colleagues, clients and friends throughout his career. Most recently, Dale had the pleasure of sharing his gifts with his colleagues and friends at Metoyer-Roy Printing, Ltd.

Dale met the love of his life, Cassaundra while attending Indiana State University. The two were united in marriage on June 1, 1991 in St. Louis, Missouri. The couple was a true reflection of compassion, friendship, and genuine love to friends and family alike. Dale and Cassaundra spent over 35 years together on a journey that only they lived, but others admired and respected.

Dale and Cassaundra joined First Metropolitan in 1991 where they grew and matured in their faith. Dale was active in many ministries throughout the years, and was a dedicated member who enjoyed serving others. Dale was involved in the Usher Board, First Men Group and the “world renowned” Burn Brothers where he fellowshipped, served, and ministered to others. Like his parents, Dale saw the needs of others and was not complacent in seeing these needs unmet. In response to that need and desire, Dale was instrumental in initiating and running The Angel Food Ministry at First Metropolitan.

Dale was not only known for his wonderful smile, but for his gentle, friendly, and respectful manner toward others. Whether it be a phone call out of love to family, lending a helpful hand at church, or sharing his love of music and films with others, Dale’s engaging personality comforted many. To many who saw Dale, his appearance may have been towering and commanding, but to those who knew him best they saw him as a cool, calm and humorous presence that could infuse the room.

Dale departed this life on February 23, 2014, but entered his eternal life with Our Heavenly Father. Dale was a man of great faith and service to the Lord through his works. Dale leaves behind his wife: Cassaundra; sisters, Leslie Burnside-Harris (Ray) and Gail Henderson and a multitude of relatives and friends that who knew him, loved him and will miss him dearly. Dale lived his life to the fullest and strived to enrich the lives of all those that he encountered.

“ Uncle Dale was without question the coolest guy that I ever came across in my family. I deeply regret never seeing him that much, but the truth is I only had to visit Dale once to get an idea of the type of man that I should strive to be. A caring, hardworking, laid back and most importantly, a God-fearing, type of man. I will miss you Dale, but I know we will meet again someday. Rest in peace.

You got the mail on the head about your uncle. Dale was a teammate of mine at Tech high school. He was the most positive hard working guy who you just knew had your back anytime. I, and several of his other football friends are shocked and saddened by his passing.

“ Dale was a great Uncle, and a nice person. Even though I didn't see him many times in the time that we had he taught me a lot. I won't be able to express my gratitude fully, but thank you uncle and I will miss you

“ Dale - I saw you on Saturday morning, and now you are running half-marathons in heaven. I remember our little talks about how crazy "your people" were - you know what I mean! And my fond memory of you bringing me breakfast tacos because I was there so early! You had your own style and such a sweet spirit. You lived life to its fullest - something we both agreed upon. We shared our athletic stories and had lots of laughs. You will be missed my friend. Until we meet again and sing with the angels....

“ Dale you were "Mary Poppins" here at work. You had everything in your truck that I could think of. There was no need to go to the stores for any supplies. You were a great friend; I will miss your stories, from weird – useful findings on E-bay. (Unicorn meat to iPhone parts) the cooking, oh my Favorite (Chess pie bars) and the advice I got from you. I will not forget any of that. So farewell my friend till we meet again.

“ I am lost without you! I need pens, pencils, to know if my headlights are working, lcees, tips for my garden; hot peppers and greens from yours, a few moments of laughter for no reason, batteries, Sinjin stories, phone chargers, sunglasses, a twin (we all get dressed knowing one of us was going to match you that day), a sounding board, $5 lemonade from Wendys with a $1 burger to go with it, a good Dale story to make me laugh, the Happy Hour schedule at Sonic, a reminder to wear my jacket, marathon advice, Chess pie, and that just covers half the day. I miss you so much! But above all you taught me to be happy, and everyday I will strive to do that. Thank you Dale for being so important in my life. Cassaundra and the entire family are in my every thought and prayer.
