“ David was like a big brother to me and always treated me with love and for that I'll be forever grateful. He was part of the village that helped raise me, I'm glad I was able to see him in early November when he shared he was proud to see me and my family happy and healthy. Prayers and condolences to the family David will be missed but never forgotten.

“ *David! Not you Man! when you worked at Waller high School you were always the life of the party. Yes, i had known you ALL of your life! I remember meeting you after you were born. Your mother and my cousin (Minnie) were good friends. Then you and Mark and Gene and others rampaged through Alta Vista as you forged through to become productive men. You were a GIANT among men. Rest well Homeboy! Rest well!
My condolences to BenNita, the children, the Kirkpatrick family and the Prairie View Family.*

“ *To the Kirkpatrick Family
It is such a shock to learn of David's passing.
I have known him all of his life. I pray that his family will find comfort, peace and strength for the days ahead. May God bless and keep you all now and always.*
