“ i am sorry that I was not able to be there for the service. I tried to get your address from Sandra, but she was not able to get it to me. please send it to me at donato821@yahoo.com. thanks, pat mcworter

one of my memories was david being able to eat. he enjoyed my mother's creole cooking and when we had family dinners,he would eat at least 3 or 4 helpings and ask for a plate to take home. i know we were not as close as we were when were younger, but we were still family.

“ Condolences to the whole Kirkpatrick family from Everett and Becky Fredholm. I, too remember asking David on many occasions how he was doing and getting his classic reply: "Kicking one more day." David and his family were remembered in prayer today at St. Francis of Assisi Episcopal Church in Cherokee, NC. God bless you all.

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Dr. David A. Kirkpatrick. My memories go back to the courtship of David and Lorraine when they were students at Prairie View A&MU. Their love flourished and led to a wonderful, beautiful, and everlasting marriage . After earning his doctorate he, Lorraine and their first born Lil' David, came back to their alma mater, PVAMU, where they family grew and while David taught at the Univ., until his retirement, Lorraine taught in the public schools until her retirement . They lived and loved, just as if they were still those college Sweethearts.
My prayers and my love are with the family.
Goodnight, Dr. David A. Kirkpatrick, I'll see you in the morning.

“ Dr. Kirkpatrick was an amazing professor who was able to make complex engineering theories make sense in the most down to earth way. A great man and educator indeed, who will be missed by man.

My prayers to the Kirkpatrick Family. Dr. Kirkpatrick was a great man, father, and husband. It was such a joy to talk with him about the generation of kids that he taught. He was dedicated to improving the life of students that came to Prairie View A&M University. Remember the good times that you shared with Dr. Kirkpatrick. Cry if you must, but know that he is resting in the arms of GOD. I will always remember, as so many others, "Kicking it one more day." What a terrific guy.
