“ I remember Dre from a baby to an adult facing many health challenges courageously. Dre was a faithful student in my PMBC Sunday School Junior class and Children’s Church class. As an adult, he always returned to PMBC from his home in Kilgore. He believed in Jesus Christ and was a blessing to us. Dre will be missed. May our Heavenly Father surround Dre’s family with His love, comfort, strength and peace.

“ To Dre’s family,

I would like to say thank you for allowing Dre to be a part of my life. When I first met Dre, I became his protector. He was a man of few words and didn’t like a lot of noise. On the bus, when it got too loud, he would come to me and say, “Ms. Ivie, there’s too much noise on this bus. What are you going to do about it?”

I would tell everyone, “No talking on this bus.” Dre loved hearing those words—“No talking, no talking on this bus.” It always made him feel comfortable.

There was a time when they tried to move me off the bus with Dre, but he wasn’t having it. Until his last day riding the bus, he was happy because he knew I would take care of him.

*He will truly be missed.
Love you, Dre.*
