“ Candy, I am praying for you and will always here for you. God gave your mom her wings...she is in route to Heaven. May God continue to be with you and your family, Keep the Faith, you did your part and for that God is grateful. I can't say I know how you feel, but I can say I have travelled that road before. Love you always. Prayers.

“ Candy,
I know how quickly this moment came for you, and I know how much harder this has made this goodbye, not that goodbyes to mama's can ever be easy. Just know...your sweet mama knows the depth of love that builds this ocean of heartbreak you feel, and so does our good Savior. It is never easy saying goodbye to mama, nor should it be. Though we know she is now visiting with our precious Lord in her new, amazing body, she is not here bodily anymore. That, my sweet friend, will be what will make the deepest corners of your heart hurt worse than you thought possible. But God...there will be many days you would not make it through, but God. There will be much anger, confusion and despair, but God. There will even be moments you doubt your own Faith and purpose now, but God. Candy, there is no one nor nothing which can strengthen you in the coming days, months, years of your life, but God. Cling to him and you will see your sweet mama again one day soon. I promise. And, I promise to remind you this when grief gets too much and it seems to no longer matter...just promise to do the same for me. I love you and am so sorry you have to say goodbye for now to your sweet mama. She was well loved, and she so very well knew it. I love you my precious friend. Though I cannot be there in body, I promise my heart is there, holding your hand. Brenda Willis

“ My Myme's favorite song was I'll Fly Away and I hope and pray on December 18, 2016 she got to enjoy her flight! Myme was a very stern and family loving mother who would say or do anything to protect her kids. Even better she was the ideal grandmother, one that I could only strive to be but would still fall short. My heart is broken and a piece of it left my body on December 18, 2016 and I know that my life will never be the same. I cry as I type this message but I know that I loved her but her savior loved her more. I am thankful that she was given the opportunity to get herself right with God and even through the pain it was purposeful for eternal life. I am going to miss Myme and calling her in the morning to see if she was up, I don't have to say that I love her because I showed her and she knew it, that's my blessing! I pray to God to give me strength and to lean on the faith that she told me that I had that was so strong, I have to trust in the LORD! My Myme told us to go on with life and that's what I have to do through prayer.
