

Fred Douglas Turner

June 25, 1936 - August 28, 2011

On June 25, 1936, a baby boy was born to the parentage of Mr. Spencer Turner and Mrs. Ollie Mae Newsome Turner of Washington County, Chappell Hill, Texas, whom they named Fred Douglas Turner.

At an early age, he confessed a hope in Christ and was baptized from the Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church. He later joined The Greater St. Peters Baptist Church where he served faithfully until death. He served in the Deacon, Transportation, Angel Food, Finance & Elijah Ministries. Along with these, he preformed many other tasks.

He graduated from C. H. Hogan High School .

Fred Turner and Pansy Marie Clark were united in marriage and two daughters were born to this union. Fred later married Doris Jean Washington, who preceded him in death. He retired from the City of Houston Police Department mechanics division after 28 years, one month and four days (As Fred would say it).

Fred passed away August 28, 2011. He is survived by two daughters, Emilie Lazette Turner Smith (Lyndon) of Hockley, Texas and Deurina Brown (Dexter) of Houston, Texas, four grandchildren, Dexter Brown, II, Danielle Brown, Tamara T. Jones and Brandon D. Turner and one great grandson, Traelon

Jones; sisters, Bessie M. Jones of Fort Worth, Texas, Dorothy Wilburn (Virgil) of Chappell Hill, Texas, Rebecca Clark (Rev. Curtis) of Houston, Texas, brothers, Edward Turner (Alzena) of Houston, Texas, Spencer L. Turner (Sylvia) of Houston, Texas and a special sister, Maurine Wilburn of Houston, Texas.
