“ Fredarian,

I'm sitting here trying to figure out how to say goodbye to you. How do I say goodbye to my Big Baby, my Birthday Twin, who was born on my 27th birthday, 27 years ago? How do I say goodbye to the most mannerable young man that I've ever known? How do I say goodbye to a young man with the biggest heart who faithfully checked on his Granny Earline and with the feistiest spirit who didn't mind checking Malik when he needed it? How do I say goodbye to that beautiful, bright, and infectious smile that could lighten up any room in an instant?

The truth is that I just can't. I can't imagine you not being front and center at our family gatherings to eat up all of the strawberry cake. I can't imagine you not being around to always offer a helping hand to anyone. I can't imagine my life without you in it.

So instead of saying goodbye, I will simply say, "So long until we meet again, Nephew. You are forever in my heart."

*Love,
Aunt Francine*

“ His Journey's Just Begun
By Ellen Brenneman

*Don't think of him as gone away ~
His journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.*

*Just think of him as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.*

*Think how he must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living
In the hearts of those he touched...
For noting love is never lost ~
And he was loved so very much.*

*Nephew,
We know that people never really die. They leave their bodies. They end their physical existence in order to continue their spiritual journey in another form, on another plane.*

*We are so grateful for the time God allowed us to have you.
Your unconditional love, smile and light that shined so bright will continue to light our pathways of love.
Even though you're gone from earth, your light will continue to shine in our hearts from above.*

Farewell, Until We Meet Again,

No longer in our sight, but forever in our hearts!
