“ In memory of my uncle, uncle deek. You will truly be missed. You were always smiling and joking. My father, Charles A Quiller, who proceeded my uncle in death, was very close to his brother. I take comfort in knowing that these two great men are reunited in Heaven. To the family, i am praying for you. God will see you through.

“ I have a lot of wonderful memories of my uncle. Whenever my father Charles A. Quiller got together with my uncle it was a great time for everybody. They were just alike. They would spend the whole time cracking jokes and talking about everyone in sight. It was all in good fun and everyone would laughing. Whenever my uncle saw my twin brother and I he would always greet us by saying "Hey Boys !" I will miss hearing that and I will miss my uncle. I know my father and uncle are just having a ball up there in heaven right now. Im sad they are not still here with us, but Im happy they can keep each other company and keep everyone in heaven laughing.
