“ Joe Diamond was known to be a loving father, a loving husband, a hard working man, a musician of great talent and zeal, an involved citizen in his community, a quick wit with smooth talk and endless hope, a dreamer of the future who cherished the moment and the past, who would give you whatever you need if he had it, just like his Lord Jesus Christ would. To me he was my big brother. He always will be, and I will see him again on the other side in eternal life. I miss him terribly, but I have hope that because Jesus lives, we will live also. Together. Forever. Amen!
