DeeJah,

Today would have been your birthday. I am still having a hard time accepting the fact that you are not physically with us. I miss you so much. Each day is a struggle but I keep pressing my way and asking God to help us make it through one day at a time. You will never ever be forgotten and you will forever be in our heart. I miss you so much. See you later papa. 🥺🥺

May the lord continue to bless this family with love support and keep smiling about the good memories you shared each and every day. Look to the hills from whence cometh your help. He walks with you and talks with you and he is always with you just hold to his hand God's unchanging hand. I love you family unconditionally.
