

Dr. Leroy G Moore Jr

October 4, 1923 - January 15, 2012

Dr. Leroy G. Moore, Jr. was born in Muskogee, Oklahoma on October 4, 1923 to Leroy G. Moore, Sr. and Theresia Bolden Moore. Also to this union was born his sister, Frances Moore Shropshire who preceded him in death. His secondary school education occurred at Douglas High School where he was an outstanding football and basketball player. He carried these skills with him to Langston University where he also lettered in these sports, and joined Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. In 1943, Leroy postponed his college studies to join the United States Air Force where he remained for three years and received the American Theater Campaign, Good Conduct, and World War II Victory Medals. He returned to Langston and graduated in 1948 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology.

In 1947, Leroy married the love of his life, Theodra Crowell Moore with whom he celebrated 44 wonderful years of marriage prior to her passing. To this union was born Dr. Sandra Moore and Dr. David Leroy Moore.

Dr. Leroy G. Moore, Jr. continued his academic pursuits at the University of Northern Colorado where he earned Masters and Doctorate degrees in Health, Physical Education and Recreation. He then began his academic and collegiate coaching careers, which took him to Arkansas A & M University and then to Prairie View A. & M. University. During his coaching career, he led his teams to two SWAC championships, four consecutive Georgia Invitational Tournament titles and the National Athletic Intercollegiate Association

Championship. In 2008 Prairie View A. & M. University honored him by naming their intramural gymnasium the Leroy G. Moore, Jr. Intramural Gymnasium.
