“ Gone from our physical presence but forever in our hearts, Mrs. Mae Ella "Reverend " Henderson. Her friendship I shall forever treasure but even more her incontrovertible commitment to God I shall hold forever.

“ Mrs. Mae Henderson was my Home Economics teacher at Ralph J. Bunche in Brookshire, Texas. On one occasion, she asked me to go to the fabric store with her. She purchased fabric for a student who could not afford to buy her fabric to make her garment. On the return back to the school she made this statement and I quote "do not let your left hand know what your right hand does." I interpreted this as she did not want me to tell anyone that she had purchased this student's fabric. I have never told anyone who this student was. I learned a lesson of generosity and thoughtfulness. Gloria Mobley
