“ It was a blessing to meet Mary and James just days after their moving into their new home. Mary was warm and friendly and I had a feeling we would be close neighbors. She would have brought so much joy to our little street...one of families that truly care for each other. While I only had the pleasure of knowing her for one short week, Mary will be missed. Prayers for James and Mary's family and friends. Neighbor Becky

Missing my sweet niece so very much. She is resting in God's care now. It's still so very hard to believe that she is gone to be with God. Was not a week that went by that I didn't get a text or phone call saying that she loved me. RNP my beautiful princess.
