“ I am sorry for the loss you experienced. We were never supposed to know the sting of death. I hope that your family is finding moments of joy thinking about the good memories of your loved one. I find it beautiful that if we ourselves can vividly remember our loved ones, how much more so can God do the same? The promise that he gives us in Isaiah Chapter 65 Verse 20 becomes so real when we consider the power that he has to fulfill whatever he says will come true. I hope you too will be comforted by his words.
