“ Condolences to the family of Minnie Ola. Prayers be with you from all that knew her. She was a true believer in God. She practice what she preach. Her love was contagious, she loved her family and was a friend to all that crossed her path. One of her biggest loves was her church, (Louisville MBC). She stood her post faithfully with the joy and grace of an angel. She will definitely be missed. Another one of Hempstead pioneers that the Lord has called home. RIP❤️ to the “GOAT” of ushers.

“ Rest in peace your sweetness, she was the same each and every time I saw her, We had a laugh every time I saw her, I use to say , " I'mma tell Sonny" and she would get oh so tickled 😂😂, it was a way for me to make her day. I went to check on her for be day, and those were my next to last words to her and she actually smiled and my last words were "I love you", and you b return she said it back. My final word to you now My Lady is to continue to rest easy 🙏

“ Oh Minnie!
My Minnie.
Nobody knows the relationship we had and the love we had for each other. It was simple. It was pure. It was real. Every time we saw each other, when we parted one of us would say " I love you!" The other one would say " I love you, too!" Until we meet again,
Dear Minnie- I love you!
