“ Mrs Myrtle Knowles - Alexander

“ I am so sorry I missed her going home celebration! Growing up as a child living just down the road from Mrs Myrtle brings back fond memories of the kind, strong, proud woman she was. I would go to visit her and Chester. She would always have some type of vegetable garden growing, in which she would always be seen tilling the soil. It amazed me then and even in her older years, perhaps even a couple of years ago, how she had any strength to still till the soil of her garden. Mrs Myrtle would always share the fruits of her labor. I would sometimes stop by and thank her by mowing her yard or whatever I could to show my appreciation and concern. Mrs Myrtle you will be missed by the Boykin/Bean family. May the Lord and the Kingdom of Heaven give you peace and comfort forever!
