“ I don't have enough words to describe what my brother meant to me. There's nothing like a brother's love and I truly thank God for my brother! I will miss the times we spent talking on the phone about his many adventures while on the road, what we was going to cook for dinner or what he had already cooked. Oh my goodness he was a pro at cooking some good ole southern greens! We talked a lot about what he wanted in life, how he so loved his family, and he never saw a wrong with his sisters lol. Paul was an awesome man of God! A man of many talents. I thank God for the precious memories of my brother! We're connected forever. Love your sister Ernestine (Stine)
