“ I feel fortunate to have had such an incredible person as my grandmother for so many wonderful years. Mammy was a beautiful exemplar of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, strength, and confidence. Every day she lived as a representative of the Kingdom of God, leaving a little heaven behind for those that she graced her presence with.

It hurts a great deal to lose her. Her presence is one that was and will forever be irreplaceable. I still smile not only because of the wonderful memories she left me and my family or the fact that she lived a long, peaceful, and happy life but also because I can still feel the joy that she placed in my heart. For that I'll be forever grateful.

“ Cousin Rena, Rest In Heaven, beautiful lady. I remember when we were on a family to you guys in Conroe(you know how LONG LONG LONG ago that was!!!).... We had just arrived, and Cousin and Mother we're in the kitchen and she'd asked Cassandra to call someone for her for whatever reason....and Cassandra was so professional and newscaster-like, speaking so eloquently, oh my gosh! Cousin Rena was just smiling so admiringly.

Mom said, "Girl, she sounds just like you, so grown and so, so eloquent!"

Cousin Rena smiled even moreso and said, "Tommie Nell, there are not many options around here, you know that!" They just chuckled, candy she looked me just standing there, mouth WISE OPEN, amazed at Cassandra the newscaster, my beautiful Cousin, and Cousin Rena said, "Well, Nr Keith, would you like a glass of lemonade so you can get out of tgrown ups business?" And they laughed and she gave me a big ol hug and said, " Here sweetheart." I couldn't have been older than 5 and I have not and shall never ever forget that life forming moment. So much love. Yet so much class and elegance that kitchen

Love you Carden girls, always have, always will.

My sincerest condolences, love, and prayers are right there with you.

RIH, Cousin Rena

“ Our Grandmother, the quintessential matriarch of our family, was a living example of what it meant to have faith, exhibit love, and cherish family. Referring to her grandchildren affectionately as “sugar plums”, was her coined phrase that let all of us know that we were truly the highlight of her days and her prized possessions!

I will certainly miss our special times together, but I’m comforted by the numerous stories, life lessons, and memories that helped shape me into the person I am today.

Enjoy your crown and well deserved mansion Grandma!

“Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.”

“ My grandmother was a great example of what faith and love looks like. She was someone who sought the good in everything and extended love and kindness to all.

I'm going to miss all the hugs, the words of wisdom, the family stories, and feasts at her house. But, thank God her passing away is not "goodbye".. Because of our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, this is "see you in a little while!"

"Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him." (1John 4:7-9)

“ My deepest sympathy to the Carden family on the passing of the Matriarch Mrs. Rena M. Carden. My fondest memories of Mrs. Carden was her sophisticated style, elegance, impeccable dress and most of all her articulate and eloquent speaking at all times. She was known to tell you that if you dress well and speak well, people will respect and treat you well. She wanted these qualities for everyone and she personified them with whomever she interacted. Mrs. Carden will be missed and we know that her legacy will live in on her children, grandchildren, family in friends. Farewell Mrs. Carden, one class act! Love always!
