

Ricky Anderson

June 19, 1958 - April 4, 2021

On June 19, 1958 in Galveston, Texas, Ricky Renard Anderson was born to the proud parents of Curtis Joe Edd and Lovie Lee Hood Anderson of Prairie View, Texas. He grew up and was educated in Prairie View and a graduate of Waller High School, the Class of '76.

His was a professional welder by trade and was gifted with his hands and was able to build anything he designed. He worked at Parker Hannifin for 30 years. On Mother's birthday, April 4, 2021, he went home to the one who created him to rest eternally from his earthly labors. He now dwells in God's care.

Ricky was an old soul who enjoyed the company of others, an avid lover of nature. He loved the land and what it could produce. He had horses, cattle, chickens, and dogs. He loved his family, and he loved the Lord. He was known for his love, compassion, and friendship. He enjoyed hunting and fishing as outdoor activities and pastime with family and friends.

Ricky was preceded in death by his mother, father, and sister Annie Lee Anderson Muse.

He is survived by his devoted wife Jacqueline of Fort Worth, Texas; daughter Brandy (Roderick) Dixon and grandchildren, Jordan and Sade' of Burkburnett, Texas; brothers Curtis Jr. of Prairie View, Texas, Ezekiel of Seattle, Washington and James (Delores) of Orangeburg, South Carolina, sisters

Dorothy Carter of Prairie View, Texas, Margie Tolder and Jistine (Larry) Galloway of Houston, Texas, Mary Anderson and Sharon Collins (L.C.) of Bowie, Maryland. Ricky had a close relationship with his “niece sister,” Carla Jean Horn of Cypress, Texas for they grew up together in Prairie View, Texas.

He has a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and friends who loved him dearly.

He enjoyed the great outdoors and hunted with his hunting partner and friend Eric (Keisha) Powell and was the godfather to their children Eric, Jr., and Malia.

Ricky was the salt of the earth, respected for his uniqueness, character and positivity because he always brought light, joy, and happiness to any room he entered.
