“ To my wife, I never thought you would leave me this way. It's so hard the sleepless nights, turning over and not seeing you next to me with the fan blowing in your face. It still feels like a dream. I was listening to the radio and our favorite song came on I Miss You by Aaron Hall. I instantly broke down crying wishing you was still here. But God had a better plan for you. Thank you for giving us two loving boys in our life of being together. I'm going to miss the laughs we shared together, the pains we shared together, and the unconditional love we had for one another. We had our bad days, but we got over it. They always say there is a reason and with time we will heal. but neither time nor reason will change the way I feel. No one really knows the heartache that I carry beyond my smile. But I have to stay stronger than ever especially for our two sons. I just wanted to say we miss you and LOVE YOU ALWAYS until we meet again. RIH

Love Always,
Your Husband

“ My sister....we fussed we fought we argued we said mean things to each other, but we also loved each other. I still can't believe I now have to go through life without you, cope with things alone, watch our kids grow without you...☐ We didn't say it, but I love you and will miss you. Don't worry about the boys....I got them as if they were mine. Rest peacefully SISTER (my only sister). Until we meet again
