“ Uncle Jr you will surely be missed. Your journey was challenging and many wouldn't have had the strength or heart to keep fighting and keep hope but you did. I remember as a little girl spending time with you and Aunt Pauline in the summer months. From the trips to work with you at Plastico, you teaching me how to bait the hook and not be afraid of the worm, to you teaching me and my brothers the song Tides of Life (I still sing that song today). Even as an adult i appreciate the advice, prayers, and encouragement you gave me through out the years. I will miss our talks and hearing your laughter.

*Love Always,
Barbara Bluit (Missy)*

“ I am so glad that me and uncle Jr had a long conversation on Monday, March 14 th, when I pulled up at grandma's, there he was sitting out in the yard in his chair, and I got out the car and we talked for a while!!! I am going to miss the long conversations that we would always have, and I will miss helping you out with whatever you needed!!! Rip uncle Jr, until we meet again, Love, Tasha
